@mustwanteddg

A Mexican company dedicated to cultural promotion, public relations, and marketing through unforgettable experiences created for the world to witness.

We develop transcendent creative concepts, designing and conceiving physical and imaginary spaces for unforgettable experiences that create a long-term relationship with our audience. Achieved through a network of talent and a multidisciplinary team of experts and professionals in different fields that shape every idea until it becomes a reality.

The most important projects developed by Must Wanted include the immersive exhibitions Van Gogh Alive Mexico and Leonardo Da Vinci: 500 years of genius Mexico. Also, we are currently producing the concept, programme and cultural agenda for the Mexican Pavilion at the Dubai World Expo 2020, which will take place from October 2021, through May 2022.
